VOL. XX, No. 8. TWENTIETH YEAR GLOUCESTER, MASS., AUGUST 26, 1916. PRICE, FIVE CENTS

East Gloucester

AUGUST is going to its finish in this locality in grand shape, which is to say that everything capable of housing the summer boarder has been commanded. In fact at times it has been difficult to obtain a cot.

The ridge of land between Mt. Pleasant street and the harbor side, the highest elevation on the east side is being rapidly built upon. No other site at East Gloucester commands such a view. It sweeps the whole coast seaward beyond Thacher's up the North Shore to Boston bay and in addition embraces a fine view of Gloucester harbor, city and the northwest with the glorious sunsets which some artists say are not to be excelled anywhere.

Looking form Stage fort across the harbor to this locality and harking back to five years ago when much of this area was uncovered the rapid building growth of this acreage is apparent. The Tener house now in the final processes of completion of tapestried brick, is another addition to the locality. All the houses are of high cost and good taste.

Halfdan M. Hanson, the architect, has just completed a set of plans for the Misses Elizabeth C. and Grace M. Spalding of Brookline who are this year occupying the Alphonso Davis house on Mt. Pleasant rd. The Misses Spalding have recently acquired quite a tract of land on Ledge rd. and plan to have their residence commenced this fall to be ready for occupancy another season. The contract calls for an outlay on the building of $13,000. The design is of the Old English-Elizabethan type very pleasing architecturly and well planned within which will be a distinct addition to the locality like all the productions from Mr. Hanson's board.

Bass Rocks never had a more prosperous season, and the outlook is for a marked growth in summer residence building.

Arrivals at The Moorland, Bass Rocks, are: Mrs. A. J. Grymes, Miss Grymes, E. Orange, N. J.; A. Dunbar, N. Y. C.; Mr. and Mrs. Carl Austin, Phila.; Mr. and Mrs. John Corbett, Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Ewing, St. Louis; Mrs. F. P. Goddard, Miss Ada L. R. Shaw, Buffalo; Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Thigpin, Shreveport, La.; Mr. and Mrs. John Corbett, St. Louis; Wm. V. Fowler, Mrs. F. Dey, Upper Montclair, N. The Annisquam Region

TONIGHT at the club house the annual Pop concert, the end of the season's festivity, is being held, Mrs. S. Henry Hooper of Hingham and Annisquam having the arrangements in charge. The talent, of which there is a quantity of good material offering was drawn mainly from the colony with a sprinkling of outsiders. Dancing followed.

Last Saturday afternoon's tea following the race was marked by informal sociability a large number being present. Mrs. Julia Hammond and Mrs. Harry H. Wiggin presided at the urn. In the evening at the dance, Mrs. S. Henry Hooper and Mrs. Wiggin were the matrons.

The Rockholm Tea House has been very busy this week with luncheons, suppers and the regular afternoon teas.

Mrs. H. S. Hill, who is at the Hawthorne Inn, entertained four ladies, also from the Inn, and Mrs. Harry H. Wiggin of Norwood Heights, at luncheon on Friday.

Mrs. F. L. Gay, who is at the Helen Davis cottage, entertained eight ladies at luncheon on Wednesday. On Thursday, Mrs. John H. Schafer, Miss Schafer and a friend lunched at the Tea House; also Mrs. Hawkins and her son and daughter, from Providence.

Saturday afternoon the tables were well filled, one party of nine people was entertained by Miss N. G. Oglesee and Miss M. L. Baine of Evanston, Ill. In the eve-

SEPTEMBER is within call and with Labor day comes the end of the active season. Tonight at the Oceansde, in the big dining hall, the guests and their friends engaged in the grand event of the season, the formal function which in years past has been the event of the season. Tonight's gathering eclipsed anything of the kind in the history of these affairs. The women's gowns were the last word of the modistes of the country and their adornments of precious stones aggregated in value a prince's ransom. Never was the United States so happy and so prosperous and never did the woman kind of the elect give visible evidence of that fact more than now, in these places where the rich foregather.

There is no disguising the fact that the season just ending has been quiet not to say slow. All the spectacular events which gave Magnolia its life and incidentally much of its advertising have gone by the board. When a man or a place stands still, it is going behind.

The wet weather this season has not been conductive to riding and driving although Magnolia's woodland roads were never in better shape. In addition a special preserve for riding and driving has been created in Ravenwood park the roads of soft gravel giving easy going and pleasurable diversion.

There was talk in the air this season of a horse show on the grounds of William H. Coolidge, formerly the Blynman farm, but it did not materialize. Perhaps something of the kind may eventuate next season. Again there is talk among the horselovers of this section, of whom there are many, of developing a club ground for polo. This would give Magnolia a prestige which would be worth while. There are some good sites for the purpose in the immediate hinterland of Magnolia and some of the big men may get together on the development of this idea.

Now that the weather has cleared somewhat the riders and drivers are beginning to get out doors. Riding master, Harry Coulter, says the interest in the thoroughbred horse and driver is more pronounced than usual. A large number here are under his tutelage.

Miss Elvine Richard of New York is counted one of the most finished equestriennes along this part of the shore, her mount being "Widow Wise."

Miss Helen Farnum, the ten year old

TO ADVERTISERS

THE CAPE ANN SHORE, now in its twentieth consecutive season, is the only summer resort publication on Cape Ann. It reaches every section of the cape, and is the only means of communication of the kind between the merchants and the summer residents. Therefore its value as an advertising medium is self-evident. It contains each week a full and complete account of the social happenings of the summer resort section. It occupies a place by itself in the advertising field, reaching the most profitable customers along the North Shore. Advertisers should remember these facts.

PRINTED AT THE OFFICE OF THE BARRY PRINTING COMPANY, SALEM, MASS.

A National School Year

September is the best part of the year in Essex county, the ideal period for enjoying out door life. Thousands who come here for the summer would gladly stay during that period were it not for the fact that the opening of the schools makes their departure imperative. The SHORE has in years past called attention to this condition and suggested that if the opening of the elemetary schools was deferred to the same time as the colleges, the season might be prolonged with profit to all concerned. However, there seems to be no concerted effort to this end. Congress, which wisely passed salutary laws governing child labor, could with equal wisdom turn its attention to estabishing a national school year which should not begin earlier than Oct. 1. Seven or eight months indoors is enough for a child anyway. Their natural environment is the open. Years ago in Gloucester there was an oak grove near the edge of the town called Judy Millett's parlor. A school marm wise beyond her time, with the coming of mild weather adjourned her classes to this sylvan retreat until late in the autumn. Hence the name.

Undesirables at Singing Beach

According to the press of Manchester the Hoi in the person of "soiled mechanics" of Salem have invaded the sacred precincts of Singing Beach and have caused much annoyance to the elect who patronize that exclusive bathing resort which is owned by the town.

The town officials and some of the citizens are reported to be in high dudgeon over this outrage and are thinking of barring out all undersirable citizens from Salem and other adjoining factory centers who presume to invade Manchester and rub elbows in the briny with the upper ten.

However, the officials are careful to say they do not object but welcome those of high social status who live at Hamilton and other aristocratic parts of the county.

Just where to draw the line and to mark the sheep from the goats is a question. Perhaps the way out will be found in the construction of a swimming pool the same as at Magnolia where only those within the pale may have the privilege of bathing in its microbic waters. The trouble with Crescent Beach at Magnolia was that chauffeurs, waitresses and others insisted in bathing with the summer colony, hence the swimming pool, the beach being left entirely to the ordinary person, with the exception of a discriminating few who prefer to take their chances in open water rather than in the enclosed swimming pool.

Well these things adjust themselves. It is said that it is only three generations from shirt sleeves to shirt sleeves and perhaps some of these "soiled mechanics" or their children may be some day welcomed where they are now barred. Manchester is a town of one beach and desires to remain so.

Rising Young Artist

On the front page we print a reproduction of an oil painting by Arthur C. Meagher, the 16 year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Michael J. Meagher, who is showing remarkable talent as a painter in oils. His work which comprises a broad range of subjects is remarkable for execution and a rare coloring which has attacted the attention of artists who prophecy for him a promising career. His paintings will be put on view in a short time and the public have an opportunity to judge of their merits. He paints the thing as he sees it, having as yet received no instruction from professionals.

Myopia Polo Players Out In Lively Practice

There were a large number of polo players out for practice on the Myopia Polo Field Saturday afternoon and some fine scores were made. There was a large gallery of the North Shore Summer colony on hand expecting a match game. Neil Rice did some clever playing, making three pretty drives down the length of the field and in two cases scored.

The field was in good condition and the ponies proved to be in the best of spirits. Those who were out this afternoon were Harry Lee, Tom Pierce, P. S. Hazrick, J. B. Moulton, Fred Ayer, Q. A. Shaw, Neil Rice, "Ted" Rice, Frederick Hostetter, D. H. Hostetter, Jr., Charles G. Rice and A. B. Smith.

"The Silent Pipes"

NOTE.—The following was clipped in going the rounds of the papers. It is one of the best things of the kind that has appeared since the outbreak of the war. The last verse especially is poetry and sentiment of high order.—Ed.

"O piper Shaun O'Connellan, where is the witching tune
That set the dancers' feet aflash beneath the summer moon,
That rippled down the dreamy glen, till all its echoes woke,
And even from their revels lured the gentle fairy folk?

I mind me, too, when winter came with grim and frosty frown
To chain the rills and rivers up, and lock the dog-pools down,
You tuned your pipes to welcome him, and round your ruddy hearth
The magic of your melody gave love and laughter birth.

"Gray wizard of the four crossroads, where are your pipes today
That voiced the summer eve and charmed the winter night away?
No longer to the gladsome lilt resounds the lightsome tread
O, piper Shaun O'Connellan, where are your dancers fled?

By many a Connemara hearth the wail of grief is high,
Loud, in the night, the Banshee mourns the dauntless ones who die;
But well he sleeps who out to death the freeman's path has trod,
For shall his soul, who falls for man, unsul'ied rise to God?"

—M. Hurl in "Ireland."

Scaler Wins Race Under Difficulties

The two commodores, Ben Colby and Everett A. Flye, of the Gloucester Yacht Club sailed an uphill race Wednesday afternoon. Shortly after getting away on the Scaler to a good start with a light southwest wind, the mainsheet parted. The crew all held on while a temporary splice was effected, the craft being kept on her course.

After repairs and the fleet had got to the breakwater, the sheet parted again in another place. Damages were again made good by running the sheet through the blocks end for end. At that, the Scaler won with a bit of luck at the finish.

The Bonitwo did the best of the windward work, rounding a minute ahead of the Moslem, with the Scaler third boat. On the reach across to the eastern mark, the Bonitwo lengthened out her lead, while the Scaler hauled up on the Moslem. On the spinnaker run to the breakwater, the Bonitwo continued her lead until the wind died out just before the breakwater was reached, the hindmost boats coming up in the meantime.

Then all became becalmed for about 15

Summons issued January 1, 1917.

Yours respectfully,

RICHARD L. MOREY,
Collector of Taxes.

AUTOMOBILISTS, ATTENTION!

The attention of all automobilists is called to the following provisions of the Revised Laws of Massachusetts Relative to Motor Vehicle Laws, Acts of 1909, Chap. 534, Section 14:

SECTION 14. Every person operating a motor vehicle shall bring the vehicle and the motor propelling it immediately to a stop when approaching a horse or other draft animal being led, ridden or driven, if such animal appears to be frightened and if the person in charge thereof shall signal so to do; and, if travelling in the opposite direction to that in which such animal is proceeding, said vehicle shall remain stationery so long as may be reasonable to allow such horse or animal to pass; or, if travelling in the same direction, the person operating shall use reasonable caution in thereafter passing such horse or other animal. In approaching or passing a car of a street railway which has been stopped to allow passengers to alight or embark, the operator of every motor vehicle shall slow down and if it be necessary for the safety of the public he shall bring said vehicle to a full stop. Upon approaching a pedestrian who is upon the travelled part of any way and not upon a sidewalk, or where the operator's view is obstructed either upon approaching an intersecting way or a curve or corner in a way, every person operating a motor vehicle shall slow down and give a timely signal with his bell, horn or other device for signalling:

Provided, that in the thickly settled parts of a city or town no bell, horn or other device for signalling shall be sounded so as to make a harsh objectional or unreasonable noise, except in the case of fire and police department vehicles and ambulances; and provided, further, that no operator of any motor vehicle shall at any time permit any unreasonable amount of smoke to escape from said motor vehicle, nor shall said operator at any time permit said motor vehicle to make any unnecessary noise, by cutting out the muffler, or otherwise.

The driver of any motor vehicle on any highway approaching a crossing of ways, shall slow down and keep to the right of the intersection of the centres of both ways, when turning to the right, and shall pass to the right of the insersection of the centres of said ways before turning to the left.

Per Order, CHARLES S. MARCHANT, City Marshal.

ning Mr. and Mrs. Walter O. Adams had supper at the Tea House.

On Sunday the spacious verandas were overflowing during tea time and through supper time. Miss Berg and her sister entertained their friends at tea. Mr. and Mrs. Dwight L. Thomas entertained Mr. and Mrs. Harry H. Wiggin and friends from Winchester at tea. Several large motor parties enjoyed tea.

Large parties at Diamond Cove have found the Rockholm a convenient place to entertain friends at tea and supper.

Recent arrivals at Wonasquam Lodge are: Dr. and Mrs. F. Watson, Boston; Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Eminger, Springfield; Mr. and Mrs. L. S. Vowell, Washington; Miss E. L. Berger, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Pierce, White Plains; W. C. Conant, Mrs. A. P. Frazar, North Acton; Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Hastins, Cambridge; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Millard, Miss Ethel Millard, Tarrytown; Mr. E. A. Baldwin, Jr., Mr. Jerold Baldwin, Schenectady; Miss Laura Greenleaf, Newburyport; Mrs. John Green, Miss Elizabeth Green, St. Louis; Miss M. M. Briere, New York; Mr. and Mrs. Willard C. Poole, Miss Elizabeth Poole, Worcester; Miss Florence Brainard, Miss Mary Brainard, Miss Georgiana Hudson, Toledo; Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Prendergast, Brookline; W. C. Hilmer, H. F. Beckman, St. Louis; Mrs. E. A. Jackson, Brighton; Miss Anna Nevins, William Nevins, Waterford; Mrs. Robert Lathrop, Rockford; Mrs. L. J. France, Miss Dorothy France, Columbus; Mr. and Mrs. Henry Raleigh, Westport; Dr. W. G. Alling, Miss Alling, Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Calburn, New Haven; Mrs. Ida D. Rand, D. A. Rand, Somerville; Miss Louisa B. Stevens, Boston.

The Saturday evening hops held at Wonasquam Lodge are very popular, not only with the guests but also with the summer residents of Annisquam. The broad piazzas afford ample room for all.

The Sunday evening concerts have proved very enjoyable, particularly the solo work of Miss Hazel Huff, piano, and John Murray, violin. The following program was given Sunday evening: Selection from Traviata, Verdi, Canzoná, Bohm, Hadel, Larghetto, Album Leaf, Wagner, Selection from Katinka, Friml.

Arrivals at the Overlook are: Miss Elizabeth M. Sampson, Mrs. A. R. Sampson, Hyde Park; Mrs. E. R. Thomas, Charlestown, S. C.; Philip P. Chase, Mrs. Chase, Philadelphia; Miss M. McSwyney, Brooklyn; Miss E. M. Mernogh, New York; Miss J. E. McElroy, Brooklyn; Helen R. Button, Edith Glenn, Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Schell, Miss Dorothy Schell, Philadelphia; Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Foster, Boston; Miss Ruth B. Taylor, Willimantic, Conn.; Mrs. Horatio Hunt, Miss C. Howe, Providence.

For a lobster to become a corking-good sandwich in Lobster Cove is fulfilling its name and mission to a T.

Many parties have been held at The Barnacle Tea House, which is on the shore of Lobster Cove, and have included: Mr. and Mrs. J. Arthur Corbitt, St. Louis, and guests from the Moorland; Mrs. Elliott Marshall, Montclair, N. J.; Miss Katharine Floyd-Jones, Miss Mimi Floyd-Jones, St. Louis.

Some well known New Yorkers from Hawthorne Inn held a very social gathering on Saturday: Mr. and Mrs. H. M. T. Beckman; Miss Josephine K. Barker, Mrs. Margaret L. Schlesenger, Mrs. Edward W. Leggett, Mrs. Wm. C. Touthwick, Mrs. Huntley Gordon, Colonel Wm. C. Touthwick, New Jersey and Mrs. H. H. Tincker of the Wonson cottage.

From Annisquam came Mrs. Arthur Nash of Cambridge; Marion C. Eliot, St. Louis; Mrs. Lewis E. Tifft, Springfield; Mrs. Frederick M. Ives, Winchester; Miss Clara B. Abbott, Miss Maud K. Murphy, Rochester, N. Y.; The Misses Minerva and Alta Piper, whose musical ability has created quite a stir in this summer colony.

From Straitsmouth Inn came Colonel and Mrs. Stephen Foote of the coast artillery, U. S. A., Miss Foote, Dr. and Mrs. Charles H. Lowndrs, U. S. Navy; Mrs. North Storms and Miss Storms of Evansville, Ind.; Mrs. John W. Speel, The Misses Hitchcock, Washington.

One of the largest and best selected private collections of baskets in the state was shown at Village Hall on Monday by Mrs. Wm. Jelly of Norwood Heights. She gave an interesting paper and cleared about fifty dollars for the fund for a Maternity Ward at the Addison Gilbert Hospital.

Hon. and Mrs. George Fred Simpson of Newton who returned last week from a motor trip to Sullivan, Me. and Poland Springs, entertained this week at their Lane rd. summer home Mrs. Emma Crane of East Boston and Misses Allen and Anthony of Newton.

Mrs. William M. Jelly gave a talk on "Baskets" at Village hall Monday night, a large audience being present. Mrs. Jelly is a collector and many interesting specimens were shown. The proceeds went to the fund for a maternity ward to the Gilbert hospital.

Dr. Alfred Mayer whose family spend the summers at Seven acres, the Hyatt place, gave an interesting talk before a large audience at Village Hall, Sunday night, of his experiences among the Fiji Islanders illustrated with colored pictures. The entire proceeds went to the fund for the Wounded Allied soldiers.

daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Farnum, of Chicago, is a fine rider for one of her years. Like the younger generation she rides astride.

Mr. and Mrs. William H. Coolidge, Mr. and Mrs. Coolidge, Jr. and daughter Kathleen, of Blynman farm, are enthusiastic equestrians and have a fine stable of thoroughbreds including eight polo ponies. Mrs. Coolidge's horse is "The Chorus Girl."

The James H. Quinn's of Milton who came to Coolidge point for the first time last season are again making one of the cottages their summer home. The family are fond of horses, have a good stable and are frequently seen riding and driving. The family comprises Mr. and Mrs. Quinn, James H. Jr., and Helen.

Countess Gustave Di Rosa, born Maud Scudder of St. Louis, whose marriage occurred two years ago, has always been prominent among the riders of this section, is this year conspicuous by her absence. She is convalescing from an illness.

Betty Walker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Harrington Walker of Detroit, whose summer home is in the Shore rd., has for her mount the mare "Margaret" while Miss Gladys Wooster from Chicago rides "The Whop."

Other families here who are lovers of the horse and fine equestrians are the Secors, Andersons, Millards and the Drakes, come over from Bass Rocks to enjoy the woodland roads. The family of A. Shuman whose summer home is Beverly Farms like the Magnolia roads and come down here for riding.

This afternoon at four Mr. and Mrs. John Hays Hammond gave at their home, Lookout Hill, Freshwater Cove, a reception in honor of Lord and Lady Aberdeen who have been their guests during the week. About a hundred of the prominent people of the North Shore were bidden to the function. The Hammond place never looked more beautiful than now. The Hammonds have been very quiet during this summer, this being the first formal affair that they have given this season.

The tennis tournament this season on the Oceanside courts will resolve itself into a round robin event among the guests of the hotel. Play will be commenced Monday. The ball tonight was a costume affair.

Beginning Monday a round robin tennis tournament among the players of the Oceanside will be commenced on the hotel courts and will be continued through the week. There are a number of expert young women players here this year but the young men are off to Plattsburg or the near-war on the Mexican frontier.

Arrivals at the Oceanside are: Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Beans, Miss Marion T. Beans, Oak Lane, Pa.; Mrs. Walter A. Schiffler, Miss Essa Wakelbaum, Dobbs Ferry; Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Post, Miss Eleanor Post, Paterson, N. J.; Lillian Emerson, Marion T. Mellen, Boston; Daniel P. Woodbury, Cincinnati; Miss C. F. Baxter, Brooklyn, N. Y.; Miss M. K. Dimmas, Packard, N. Y.; C. W. Jones and wife, Flint, Mich.; Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Sterling, Phila.; Mr. and Mrs. Arch M. Robinson, Louisville; Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Smith, Perry, N. Y.; Mrs. Chas. Skeer, Bethlehem; Mrs. C. Moorline, Miss Elsie Metz, R. A. Parson, Cincinnati; Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Johnston, Miss J. Murchison, R. Becker, Baltimore; Dr .and Mrs. C. C. Sanders, Pittsburgh; Walter C. Maher, Norfolk, Va.; R. P. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Newell, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Russell, Peabody; Miss Mary Anne Roberts, Mr. and Mrs. William J. Burns, Robert F. Adams, New York; D. Markle, Hazleton, Pa.; J. B. Crouch, Baltimore; Mrs. James F. Keeney, Perry H. Keeney, Chicago; Mrs. Alfred E. Hunt, Pittsburgh; Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Platt, New Britian, Ct.

Deaconess Jones of Providence is the guest of Miss Mac Vicar at her cottage on Norman ave.

Mr. and Mrs. George C. Miller with their little daughter, Miss Marion of Buffalo, have returned to the Oceanside for their sixth season. They have appartments in the Sea Crest cottage.

Mrs. C. H. Johnson of Boston was the guest of David Lorings of Bay State Road, Boston, at the Oceanside during the week.

The announcement of the death of Gurney Rikeman of Toronto, for many years a guest at the Oceanside with his parents, while serving in the Canadian Aviation Corps at the front, has been a severe blow to his many friends. Mr. Rikeman was in his 21st year.

The Misses Marion and Majorie Dakin were hostesses at a dance given at their summer home in Fuller st. Wednesday afternoon. Among those present were the Misses Anne and Martha Bailey, Beatrice Smith, Molly Wendell, Marjorie Stone, Stuart Kaiser, George H. Robinson, Alan R. Elsworth, Randolph Elsworth, Glenwood Sharrad, Robert Ball and Charles Allen.

For a tea room somewhat off the beaten track it is remarkable how many find their way to the Cathedral Pines Goose. Saturday, Mrs. C. R. Holmes and a large party motored from the Oceanside. Sunday, Mrs. Ida Hollaway gave a tea for the noted artist, Frank Dunenck, and Miss Duneneck. Some 25 people form the artists' colony in East Gloucester came over for the occasion. Many other parties had tea at the Cathedral Pines on Sunday including: Mr. and Mrs. Greene of Kansas City; Mr. and Mrs. Jos. Damon, Cambridge; Miss Damon and Foster Damon who are frequent visitors; and Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Pierce of White Plains, N. Y.

Friday, C. C. Campbell of New York gave a luncheon for a number of friends from Pigeon Cove.

Many little informal supper parties took place during the week. Miss O'Reilly of Dubin, Ire. and Miss McHugh of Philadelphia are stopping at the Cathedral Pines for several weeks.

East Gloucester

Social matters have been quiet at the Bass Rocks club during the week. Sunday night Mrs. Allen B. Farmer, of Boston, tendered a surprise party to her husband at the clubhouse, some 100 of the colony being in attendance.

J. H. Gray and Miss Margaret Mitchell, the latter of Boston, won the tennis tournament for mixed doubles with H. B. Warner and Miss Eleonora Carl of Boston, second, both getting cups. Irving Humphrey won the par golf tournament competition, Wednesday.

Wednesday the tournament in ladies doubles was commenced and the qualifying round in the handicap match tournament was played.

Thursday, Mrs. Nathan Newberry of Taunton entertained 19 at tea. William Humble of Fort Worth, Tex., entertained 12 of his friends at tea and Miss McFeeley of Pittsburg entertained five at tea.

Frank D. Merneck, a friend and contempory of James McNeil, Whistler, Chase and others of renown and Mrs. D. Merneck chartered a special car and invited the artist and a few friends of the Rockaway to view the paintings of Mr. Kailer of Cincinnati, at his studio in Rockport, Sunday afternoon where they were hospitably received and refreshed. Finishing a delightful day with "afternoon tea" at the Cathedral Pines Tea House.

The Guests were: "Lotta," a winsome little woman we all know; Mr. and Mrs. Henry B. Snell, Mr. and Mrs. J. William Fondick, N. Y.; Sara Taber Coffin, Boston; Mr. Jacob Kunz, Paris; Mr. Louis Kronberg, Mr. Noyes, Boston; H. H. Wassel, M. East Gloucester

On Tuesday evening the Rockaway held its Midsummer Ball in the large Cogia, decorated with many bright colored flowers, softly glowing lights, and cool, flowing draperies. The gorgeous gowns of the ladies were set off to advantage by the black and white evening clothes of the men. The dancing was not confined to the young people, for many a matron flitted around the floor in the arms of the older gentlemen.

The music was supplied by the Imperial Tango Orchestra, and they gave their very best efforts to a most enjoyable evening, a one-step with all the "pep" in the world, then a dreamy waltz; winding up with a snappy fox-trot.

During the intermission refreshments were served in the dining-room, on the porch, and in many quiet nooks, for which the Rockaway is famous. It was in the wee small hours of the morning, when the last peal of laughter had died out, the music had ceased, and all was quiet.

Monday, the power boat "Rockaway," ably piloted by genial Capt. Publicover, made a trip to Marblehead with a party from the hotel. The trip was delightful, deep blue sea dotted with white sails on one side, and the rugged rock-bound coast, surrounded by green woods on the other presenting an unsurpassable view.

The party remained in Marblehead for tea. After refreshing themselves the boat was headed for Gloucester. On the way home, numerous songs floated over the water from the boat, and Capt. Publicover told his passengers some tales of the sea. When the party landed at the Rockaway, the trip was voted the best of the season. The party were: Bishop and Mrs. Reese, Mrs. Strang, the Misses Strang, Miss Cissel, Miss Washburn, Mrs. F. W. Smith, Mrs. Freyer, Mrs. Patterson, Miss Jones, The Misses Gilfillan, Miss Anderson, Mrs. Crump, Mr. Smith, Miss Burbank, Miss Von Valkenburg.

Arrivals at the Rockaway are: Mrs. Larz Anderson, George M. Anderson, Cincinnati; Mrs. R. S. I. Cissel, Miss H. M. Cissel, Elizabeth, N. J.; Dorothy Coligny, N. Y. City; Miss Elizabeth M. Gilfillan, Florence B. Gilfillan, Patterson, N. J.; Miss Huntley, Washington; Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Norton, Springfield; Mrs. Howard E. Belden, Bradstreet; Mrs. L. D. Van Valkenburg, Miss R. B. Van Valkenburg, Holyoke; Mrs. H. T. Allen.

The Thorwald arrivals are: Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Gibson, Miss Alice Gibson, Miss Helen Smart, Toronto; Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Imbrie, Jr., Chattanooga; Mr. and Mrs. E. Bruce Merriman, Providence; Miss Mildred Green, Springfield; Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Bergstrosser, Miss Ethel Bergstrosser, New York City; Miss Helen Cunningham, Camden, N. Do You Know How To Arrange Flowers?

Fulper Pottery Makes It Easy.

A woman who can arrange flowers artistically is as much an artist as her friend who paints a picture.

In making flowers express their own loveliness, she expresses besides, her own individuality.

Such women, lovers of flowers, are always looking for the sort of vases and bowls that will help them produce new and charming effects.

And such vases and bowls are to be found in Fulper Pottery—bud vases, flower bowls, flower holders, bulb dishes, etc.

Fulper flower holders make artistic arrangement simple and easy, and make possible more charming effects than ever before.

Sometime you will say, "If I only had one more flower bowl!" Then why not come in to-day and see these beautiful pieces of Fulper Pottery. Come to-day.
